

Strategic Thinking: Your View

Here is a brief exercise that you can print out and complete to consider your level of strategic thinking.

The Strategic Thinking Exercise is designed to increase your awareness about the level, the depth and expansiveness of thinking that you employ at work. It is the combination of thinking in all 4 directions that demonstrates strategic thinking capability.

Identify and mark your level of strategic thinking on the diagram above.